

Driver fatigue

When does our body clock make us feel most sleepy?

- ☐ Between 12-2am and 12-2pm
- ☐ Between 3-5am and 3-5pm
- ☐ Between 6-8am and 6-8pm

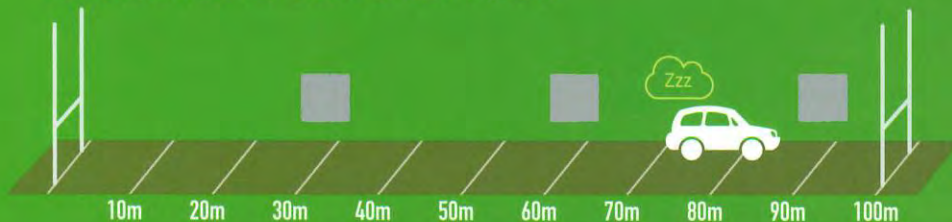

The most common effects of fatigue on driving are

- ☐ Difficulty concentrating
- ☐ Drifting out of the lane
- ☐ Frequent and unnecessary changes in speed
- ☐ Slower reactions
- ☐ All of the above

The most common object struck in a Waikato fatigue crash is a

- ☐ Fence
- ☐ Ditch
- ☐ Tree

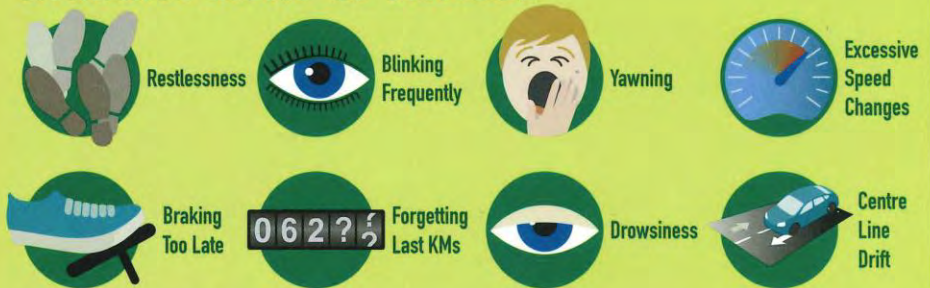

If a driver has a three seconds micro-sleep while travelling at 100km/h how far will the car travel?

This data was sourced from NZTA

reducetherisk.co.nz

WARNING SIGNS OF FATIGUE

MINIMISE RISK

COMMON MYTHS

These only help with fatigue short-term. Stopping and getting a good night's sleep is the only cure.

Answers: 1.) Between 3-5am and 3-5pm 2.) All of the above 3.) Fence 4.) 90m

reducetherisk.co.nz